

Dropping the prohibition about dual or triplicate ownership of media companies by the same person/corporation serves only those who want to continue increase their power base (read that FINANCIAL GAIN). It would NOT serve public interest.

"News" would be filtered - and, by extension, altered - unwisely.

I protest dropping the current restriction which would serve only the news industry who SHOULD be serving us.